Huge Task.

It was a huge task to undertake the cure of such a bad case of kidney disease, as that of C. F. Collier, of Cherokee, Iowa, but Electric Bitters did it. He writes: "My kidneys were so far gone, I could not sit on a chair without a cushion; and suffered from dreadful backache, headache and depression. In Electric Bitters, however, I found a cure, and by them was restored to perfect health. I recommend this great tonic medicine to all with weak kidneys, liver or stomach." Guaranteed by Oberdorfer, the druggist. Price 50c.

Dangers of Defective Plumbing!

Defective plumbing permits the entrance into the house of sewer gas bearing germs or contagious disease to which the human system readily succumbs. Sewer gas is not necessarily generated in the sewer, but is frequently created in the plumbing system within the home and enters the apartments through defective fixtures. If in doubt, consult us regarding the piping and repairing defective fixtures with "STANDARD" Porcelain Enameled Ware, acknowledged as the best sanitary equipment.

Now that the Democratic party has won the city of Cincinnati, the Republican House at Columbus blocks the proposition for an investigation of the affairs of the city under Boss Cox. All of which goes to show that political machines and political bosses are never truly dead until the coffin lid is screwed down tight and hard and laid away under the sod, or cremated and their ashes thrown to the winds.

While Bourbon County did not send an orator or a man who would make any "grand stand" plays in the Legislature, yet we have a Representative who is intelligent, level-headed and conscientious, and one who can not be hoodwinked and fooled to vote for any measure that has no merit in it. Mr. Woodford is against the appropriation of another $1,000,000 for the new Capitol at this time. There is still $900,000 of the first appropriation left to work on until the following Legislature meets and he has the right idea in voting no on the appropriation at this time. Whenever he casts a vote you can rest assured it is for the best interests of the taxpayers.

REPUBLICAN newspapers point with pride to the fact that during 1905 Andrew Carnegie "gave away" $14,000,000, while John D. Rockefeller "gave away" $11,000,000. This is all very interesting.

Every dollar these gentlemen have "given away" has been brought regularly to public attention through the columns of the daily press, but the more interesting explanation would be, "Where did they get it?"

"Upon what meat did this, our Caesar feast that he has grown so great" as to be able to "give away" these large sums of money?

THERE is no doubt but what a curb should be put on the revenue agents by the Legislature, at the same time much of the clamor against them comes from the tax-dodging class. It should be remembered that through the revenue agents in the past four years nearly $400,000 has been recovered to the State Treasury that would have been otherwise never accounted for. If those who have property would give in to the Assessors at the ratio required by law, the poor and middle classes would not be compelled to carry the burden of taxation. Did you ever notice that the people who generally are complaining of high rate of taxation are those who are under cover with their holdings.

THE sale of Sunday-laid hen eggs, begun last October by the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of Bethel Church, in Mercer county, has reached such proportions as to permit the sending of four missionaries to the Japanese field. A scheme was formulated in this office last week that bids fair to send more missionaries to foreign fields than this Sunday-laid egg business. It is now a rule in News office that when an employe loses his temper and lets out a little cuss word he pays 2½ cents in the treasury, the proceeds to be given to foreign missions. The rule is only a week old and the fund is large enough now to pay the expenses of one missionary. We had bad luck, though, for the folding machine broke Thursday night and we were kept up until 3 o'clock Friday morning.

Now can be seen how differently situated are the negroes in town and those in the country, says the Richmond Register. These colored men and their families, who are willing to do honest work as farm hands or other labor, have plenty to eat, they live in comfortable quarters with smoking chimneys, and, when they are seen in town, they are warmly clad, and carry some money in their pockets, too. But how about their town brothers? With a few remarkable and creditable exceptions, these town negroes, who, like the grasshopper, "sang the Summer away," are now upon the charity of the very people who offered them work—even persuaded them to work, as if asking a favor. They have little to eat, and that little is uncertain; they are poorly clad, they have scant fuel, and the men lounge in stores and bar-rooms, for the free warmth they can there obtain. It would seem that this contrast would strike the negro leaders, and that they at their churches and other places of meeting, would lay the matter plainly before their people. If the negro could be got into the country and kept there, he would do better, he would command respect, become a land owner and lay a good foundation upon which to build his future progress.
